Navy Team Furnishes Soft Opposition For Merchants; Second Game Sparkles

The first double-header game Sunday afternoon with the U.S.S. Nevada subbing for the navy champs of the U.S.S. Tennessee turned out to be a bloomer. The Lomita Merchants waded right into the fray and scored in every inning for a total of 19 runs until it looked as if the game would last all night. To allow the second game, a league game, to be played the first session was called after the fifth inning, with the score, 19-6.

Each team counted as many hits as runs. Eppley started for the Merchants and gave up four hits in the first inning, but held the Nevada boys to two after that. B. Markham had a perfect batting average for the game, four out of four, with Eppica and S. Yenabe getting three each.

The second game more than made up to the fans for the comedy of the early afternoon. Hamilton held the Pacific Clay Products team to eight hits and two runs, while the Merchants picked up 10 and 7 along the route.

The visitors opened the ball game with a couple of good slaps off Hamilton that netted one run but quickly lost the lead when the Merchants came to bat and took two. Morris's boys pushed hard on the ball in the second frame for four hits and two more runs, and lead 4-1 until the seventh when Chapman's homer added another score for the visitors.

Three runs off one hit in the eighth put the Merchants far out in front as the china boys were helpless in the next two halves.

Perfect fielding on the part of the Merchants helped to win this game, the fourth out of five won in the summer tournament. League, Merchant catcher, helped out with three lousy blows, two of them for two bases.

Next Sunday the Merchants meet the Whippet Gasoline team and on the following Sunday, Sept. 13, the Jadrans Athletic Club of San Pedro will furnish (Continued on page 8-B)

Two Home Games Are Scheduled For the Tartars

Tentative Football Schedule in Marine League Is Announced

Football schedule for the Marine League, at tentatively set up calls for five games, starting October 9, with two practice games in advance of that date.

With the addition of San Pedro, the Marine League this fall is expanded to six teams: Torrance, Leuzinger, Gardena, El Segundo, Narbonne and the port city.

Practice games, for which as yet no opponents have been selected will be held on September 25 and October 2.

Torrance will start its regular season playing Leuzinger at Leuzinger on October 9; the remainder of the games are San Pedro at San Pedro on October 16; Narbonne at Torrance, October 23; Gardena at Torrance, October 30; and El Segundo at El Segundo November 6.

New Round Robin
A new plan of operation, as announced by Bill Lopez, assistant supervisor of physical education, puts city schedules on a higher competitive plane than ever before in addition to cutting down the number of teams who previously have had to eliminate one another for the city playoff.

Each school will play five regular loop games with the No. 1 and No. 2 squads in each sector to qualify for the playoff. Loop pairings will consist of Pacific vs. Southern, Western vs. Marine and San Fernando vs. Northern. The No. 1 outfit of the Pacific will meet the No. 2 team of the Southern while No. 2 in the Pacific will oppose No. 1 in the Southern section. Other loops will follow the same idea.

Winners in the first round of play will pair off the following week and after the second round only three survivors will be left to battle for the all-city title.

Fresno State Preps for Dons

FRESNO.—Between 45 and 60 men are expected to greet Coach James "Rabbit" Bradshaw when Fresno State's third annual pre-season camp is opened September 8 at Huntington Lake.

Bradshaw, who left the Stanford University coaching staff to become head coach at the Bulldog college, has written approximately 45 men, inviting them to attend the camp in the High Sierras, and other aspiring football players are expected to make application to Bradshaw for a place at the camp. The mailing list included the names of 17 veterans, many recruits from the 1935 freshman team, and several promising newcomers.

Fundamentals and the plays needed to score on the University of San Francisco in the season's opener will likely be on the practice program. The Dons, who beat Fresno State, 21 to 3, last Thanksgiving Day, will come to Fresno again the night of September 26, and Bradshaw is faced with the necessity of perfecting a strong attack and defense in less than three weeks.

COAST LEAGUE GAMES
Pacific Coast League games for the week-end are: Sacramento at San Diego; San Francisco at Seattle; Oakland at Mission; Los Angeles at Portland.

The Champion!!!!

The "Fride of Torrance," Louis Zamperini has returned to his home town. After running in five countries of Europe, Louis arrived home Tuesday night, the same modest, unassuming lad that left two months ago, for the Olympic tryouts. The City of Torrance is proud of their "Champion," proud that he has the makings of a real champion in more ways than one, namely, by being modest and taking his plaudits very gracefully.

City Should Rename Gramercy Street

As a tribute to a boy who has received publicity for his home town, Torrance, in nearly every newspaper in the entire world Torrance should rename Gramercy street to be known in the future, as "Zamperini Street."

Torrance Athletic Club Meets Tonight

The Torrance Athletic Club will get off to a flying start tonight, in the old Council rooms, (over the fire station) when the citizens of this city get together for the second time within two weeks to plan the organization and discuss measures to organize. Everyone interested in such a venture for their city are invited to attend. Time, 8:00 P. M.

A Few Football Shorts—Season Near

Kenneth Haslam, former Torrance star guard will return to Fresno State. Kenneth should get great guns this year, so don't be surprised to see one of our favorite policemen, Kenneth's dad, doing some handstands down the street, some night after a game. Jack Javens and Hubert Luck arrived safely in Salinas, and started school this week at the junior college. Both boys like the town and are working on a ranch near the city. Jack reported for football practice and hopes to make the varsity team. Loyola of L. A. will have over 60 players out this year for the varsity team.

Tom Lieb figures that he really has something to present to the fans during the coming season. Another Marine league star, beside the two Torrance boys, Acree and Natsidi, who will be seen in action this year for the Lions, is Dick Grace, former Gardena high boy, who stands 6 feet in height and tips the scales at 210, is playing tackle, the scales at 210, is playing tackle, the scales at 210, is playing tackle.

Ray Briese is the only married man on the entire team. Mrs. Briese recently presented, the Loyola fullback with a 9½ pound son.

Baseball Fans of Torrance Are Becoming Good at Boating

Many baseball fans of Torrance are developing the very bad habit of "boating" players during games. The habit of assing and boating is very bad taste to this writer's mind, especially when admission is free to the fans. It has been called to my attention that many of the town's greatest boaters have developed the bad habit of giving the bronx cheer on the slightest occasion. This writer suggests that if the assing and boating continues, that they organize a boaters club, elect a good boater and attend all athletic contests in the city and really have a boating good time. Let's have a few letters from the fans of Torrance, pro and con on boating.

Dove Hunting Season Opens

The dove hunting season in California opened Tuesday, Sept. 1, in the northern part of the state for one month and in the southern part for two months.

Although the game is reported plentiful in the stubble fields, local and county ordinances against the discharge of firearms will halt hunting.

However, other parts of the southland are open and the birds are reported plentiful this season.

Bag limit laws, governed by the state remain the same as last year, 15 birds a day being the limit and 15 the possession limit. Two limits a week are allowed.

Duck Refuge In Oregon Harbors Increased Number of Game Birds

SACRAMENTO, (U.P.)—California sportsmen may expect abundant duck shooting again the next few years. George D. Nordenholt, state director of natural resources, made this prophecy on his return here from an inspection of the Malheur federal duck refuge in southeastern Oregon.

"There are twice as many ducks nesting on the Malheur refuge this year as there were at the same time in 1935," Nordenholt said. "We estimated that there are 20,000 ducks there at present, but 20 times as many can be accommodated."

Duck Factory

Recent acquisition of water rights by the federal government have increased the value of the Malheur refuge, Nordenholt explained. He also pointed out that Warner's Valley also has been one of California's "duck factories."

"Every assistance should be given the biological survey towards the acquisition of this area as a 'duck refuge,' the director added. "The lower Klamath Lake area also should be converted into a wild fowl refuge."

"Addition of these two areas to the present wild fowl refuge areas of Tule, Klamath, Clear and Malheur lakes should bring California duck hunting back to the sport of pre-war days."

Month of Shooting

Meantime, California duck hunters will have 30 days of shooting this fall under the new migratory bird treaty act regulations announced by the United States department of Agriculture.

Under the regulations California was placed in the intermediate zone, with a season from November 1 to 30. Three species of waterfowl, the Atlantic brant, redhead and canvasback ducks have been placed on the list of fully protected species this season.

Last year's regulations prohibiting baiting or the use of live decoys and sink boxes or batteries have been continued.

Newport-Balboa Fishing News By "Scotsman, Jr."

NEWPORT-BALBOA.—To begin this report in a true fishy manner, here's one for the books: Capt. W. W. Watson of Balboa and Clifford Grua, 11-year-old of Los Angeles, were out trolling for albacore last week, using feather jigs, when suddenly Grua hooked into something big. No, you're mistaken, it wasn't an albacore, it was a marlin swordfish. Can you beat that—a marlin hitting on a feather jig? Grua, with 200 yards of No. 12 line on his reel, turned over the rod to Watson who proceeded in true fisherman style to land the baby which weighed 190 pounds. D. C. Hirsh, of Los Angeles, also caught a marlin, 177 pounds, one day last week aboard Jimmy Stevenson's boat "Daisy." Besides marlin, trolling boats are bringing in catches of yellowfin, tuna, albacore, and skipjack.

Surf and bay fishing around Newport-Balboa for the past few weeks has been the best we've had in many a moon. Spottin croaker, yellowfin and corbina have been caught in larger numbers; why they're just slaughtering 'em. Bugs and clams being for bait. If you don't believe surf fishin's good, why don't you come down and try it sometime? I still think you think I'm kidding you, but I'm not. The live bait boat "Valencia" came in last Sunday with 120 white sea bass weighing up to 18 pounds apiece. Two livebait boats now operate from the Newport pier thru the week, with boats at 7 and 8 a. m. On Sunday three boats go out, the "Valencia III," "Sunshine" and "May-B," at 6, 7 and 8 a. m.

National Supply Takes Two Games From Sandy & Scotty to Close League

The National Supply, on the short end of the championship series, came to life last Friday to shut out the Sandy & Scotty kids 8-0 and even up the series. On Tuesday night they handed out a terrific shellacking to the kids and walked away with the City League championship. The game was hotly contested in spite of the lopsided score, 18-7, and for a time it looked as if the kids would pull down the championship.

Loyola Lions Has Nice Line of Games Listed

Coach Lieb Will Pick Team From List of Sixty Players

LOS ANGELES.—When fall football practice opens on September 12 for the Loyola University Lions, head coach Thomas J. Lieb will be looking over a squad of some sixty-odd football players who will form his 1936 Del Rey varsity team. With no fanfare of trumpets blaring the tidings that this will be the "best Loyola team in history," Coach Lieb will give the boys a sound once-over and probably decide that he has a pretty fair sort of team.

The Lions have been hard hit by graduation and the loss of thirteen veterans from the 1935 squad will be keenly felt this fall. However, Lieb's warriors will turn to smiles of jubilation if the seventeen members up from the 1935 frosh team develop into good varsity material. Last year's freshmen team was the best Loyola has had in three years.

Following is the Lions' schedule of games:

Sept. 18—Cal. Tech. Sept. 25—Redlands U. Oct. 2—Whittier Oct. 11—St. Mary's. Oct. 23—College of Pacific. Nov. 1—U.S. Marines. Nov. 11—Texas Tech. (Homecoming game). Nov. 22—Santa Clara. Nov. 29—U. of San Francisco. Dec. 11—U. of Hawaii.
